

Case study : Sanneizaka Preservation District

The district of Sanneisaka on the foot of the eastern mountain of Kyoto is a monzen-machi, or Town in front of Temple and/or Shrine Gates on an area of 5.3 hectares with 240 buildings, 120 of which are designated as 'important'.

The people:
Inhabitants and visitors

Short Cultural History of the Region

Machinami :
Existing House-Type and Streetscape

Preservation Strategy